

HOFFNUNG-WELTWEIT-CAMPMEETING 2012 IN WESTERWALD

was born in a rural farming community in Pennsylvania. From a very young age, growing food was a way of life. From 1980 to 1994, Joel managed the farm at Eden Valley in Colorado where he met Joyce. In the little farm house Joella, Mark, and Joanna were born.

Nepal was the next step in ministry, building a clinic in a remote region of the country, doing agriculture, health, and Bible instructor training, and starting New Hope Lifestyle seminars.

Back in the USA, they worked in the local churches, promoting health and holding lifestyle seminars in Utah and West Virginia. Joel was Farm Manager at Uchee Pines in Alabama for 2 years while the children were getting medical missionary training. There, he started the "Day at the Farm", a monthly day for drawing families to experience the joys of gardening.

For almost 4 years now, Joel, Joyce, and their 3 children, have been in Monument Valley, Utah, working on the Navajo Nation to raise up a team of medical missionary workers who are equipped to help their own native people. Natural remedies have truly been the right arm in reaching the traditional people. Joella Meyer will be managing the Health & Healing Center, which is nearing completion. They have already had precious experiences giving treatments from their home. Joyce teaches 1st & 2nd grades in the elementary school, and Joanna teaches cello. Mark does the website for the mission as well as helps his dad with hay sales, and whatever is needed.

ANN-MARIE SCOTT

was born in Jamaica and spent part of her childhood there, and part in New York City. She is a Registered Nurse and became interested in Lifestyle Medicine during her college years after reading the book The Ministry of Healing. Currently, she works at „Wellness Secrets“ in Arkansas, USA. They operate a lifestyle center which offers a 5 Day Live-in Program, where guests come with major lifestyle diseases, like diabetes, high blood pressure, and obesity. The guests follow a simple whole foods plant based diet, exercise, and follow some other basic principles of health, along with hydrotherapy. Ann-Marie has also worked at other health centers, including Uchee Pines Institute with Dr. Agatha Thrash, as well as at Hartland Institute.

spent the main part of his childhood in Upper Bavaria and in the Odenwald. After school, from 1990-1995, he completed his master studies in oriental languages, Islamic and Jewish studies.

Since 1996, he works as editor of the magazine of hoffnung weltweit (Fundament/Versöhnungstag). He and his wife Bettina have three children: Jamila (16), Shireen (12) and Jaron (5). Since 2011, after a blessed time in the Markgräflerland and the Adventist Church in Lörrach, he is doing the editorial work in Bolivia, where the family helps setting up the children's village SHILOH and where they support the ADRA children's village CERENID.

Since 2005, he has visited Turkey on a yearly basis, in order to foster the contact to his Muslim-Adventist friends and to support their work. He is the author of a 15-part article series about the Sons of the East and further articles especially about Islam and the Bible.

ALBERTO ROSENTHAL

spent his childhood and schooldays at Lake Constance. Later he studied theology at Collonges sous Salève and in Strasbourg.

In the summer of 1994, together with his father, he followed the call to publish a magazine to strengthen the prophetic commission of the Adventist Church, and thus, the Fundament/Versöhnungstag was started. Subsequently, in the fall of 1996, hoffnung weltweit was founded, which is an association of meanwhile nine families/brothers and sisters working closely together for this purpose.

Since the end of 2007 and together with his dear wife Patricia since the middle of 2008, he regularly serves in Asia, notably in India and Sri Lanka for „the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ“ (Revelation 1:2). This ministry reaches various, mainly Christian, circles and led to the foundation of Maranatha Prophetic Ministries (India/Sri Lanka), under the leadership of local protestant pastors.
